*IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- If you want to revoke, cancel, or end a Power of Attorney before it expires, you must sign a Revocation of Power of Attorney. You must give a copy of the revocation to any person who might have or will possibly deal with your agent.
- No one is ever legally required to accept a power of attorney (even a military power of attorney), regardless of the legality or validity of the power of attorney.
- In some cases, certain individuals and/or businesses will only accept a power of attorney fulfilling their specific individual standards and requirements, such as banks and other financial institutions. Many have their own form, so ask them. As a result, ensure this power of attorney will meet the specific standards of the individuals and/or businesses with whom your agent will do business.
- Your appointee or agent MUST have the ORIGINAL Power of Attorney, you should keep a copy for your records.
